Midweek Sermon

Pastor JD Small

August 12, 2020

“Praising others does not come easily to human nature; we like to receive praise, but not to give it. Criticizing comes much easier because we feel more comfortable looking down on people. Praising involves looking up in admiration, and our necks and egos tend to creak and ache when we attempt it. Affirmation is also discouraged by powerful societal trends: cynicism, distrust, suspicion, negativity, envy, political strife, and bad news at home and abroad, all combine to chill our hearts and shrink our souls.” — David Murray

Dis-Couraged — having lost confidence or enthusiasm; disheartened.

Hebrews 10:23-25

“23 Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. 24 And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, 25 not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.”

- Hold on to the hope we profess, Jesus
- Remember that God is Faithful
- Consider how we can push each other to do the good things that Jesus has called and equipped us to do
- Don't give up gathering together with other believers
- Encourage one another

Hebrews 10:25

“25 not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.”

“The final exhortation of this passage calls this community of Christ-followers to a life of mutual encouragement. Christians have a high calling to care for one another and stimulate one another spiritually and morally. The word translated “let us consider” (katanoëo), the main verb around which verses 24-25 revolve, occurs just fourteen times in the New Testament; it means to “notice, consider, pay attention to, look closely at.” [19] Believers are to rivet their attention on the need for conscious activities of encouragement among those in the Christian community.”

  - b. to beg, entreat, beseech
    - i. to strive to appease by entreaty
3. to console, to encourage and strengthen by consolation, to comfort

"In the New Testament, the word most often translated as "encouragement" is parakalein. This term comes from two Greek words: para, meaning "alongside of," and kaleo, meaning "to call." When people come alongside us during difficult times to give us renewed courage, a renewed spirit, renewed hope—that's encouragement." — William Barclay

2. Jesus

2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

"6 May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by his grace gave us eternal encouragement and good hope, 17 encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good deed and word."

3. Holy Spirit

b. Acts 2:42-47

"42 They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. 43 Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles. 44 All the believers were together and had everything in common. 45 They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. 46 Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, 47 praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved."
